

FIERCE

FIRE RAGED THIS MORNING IN CHICAGO.

FIREMEN HANDICAPPED BY THE COLD WEATHER.

PROPERTY LOSS QUITE HEAVY.

Blaze Started in Sanford Building, Spreading to the Trude Sky Scrap—No Loss of Life.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 7.—Fire that threatened the destruction of hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property in the heart of the business district and created panic among thousands of workers, started this morning in the Sanford building, a four-story structure at No. 38 Randolph street, occupied by the George Watson Paint and Oil company, and the Roche Piano and Organ company. After a desperate three hours' battle with the flames, which had succeeded in spreading to the Trude building, a ten-story office structure, and to Handel Hall, the firemen got the conflagration under control. The loss is placed at $250,000.

A half hour after the fire was discovered, the Sanford building was a mass of flames and there was no hope of saving it, the energies of the firemen being directed toward preventing the destruction of the Trude building. In this building there were hundreds of men and women and when the flames were communicated to it there was a panic, several of the women fainting and being taken out in an unconscious condition. Terrible explosions of paint and oil served to heighten the fear of the entire neighborhood and almost every building on the block was deserted. The firemen feared that further explosions would endanger the Marshall Field building with its stock valued at a million or more, and the employees of the concern were warned to get out of the building. A semi-panic prevailed here when the firemen ran from floor to floor giving the warning, but nobody was hurt in the rush to get out.

The floors of the Sanford building collapsed shortly after 10 o'clock practically smothering the fire, but the danger of further explosions still was present. The fire in the Trude building and in Handel Hall were extinguished after suffering a loss of about $30,000 each, the remainder of the loss being in the Sanford building.

While this fire was raging another was destroying the building 148-43 Michigan avenue, occupied by the Gage Millinery company and the Central Union Telephone company. The loss here was $150,000.

The firemen were badly handicapped by frozen plugs and lack of coal. Several of the men, while directing hose were frozen fast to the street and had to be chopped out.

BIG HOTEL BURNS.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 7.—The Vendome Hotel, the leading European hostelry of this city, valued at $100,000, was completely gutted by fire this morning.

Cabinet Met This Afternoon to Discuss Irish Situation Which is Causing Worry.

London, Feb. 7.—The cabinet met this afternoon. It is stated that the Irish situation which has recently occupied equal attention with the war in South Africa was the chief topic up for discussion. The disturbances in Roscommon county recently caused by the determination of some of the Irish League not to pay their rents, and the land purchase campaign of T. W. Russell, which Wednesday had a tangible result in the election of James Wood, the land purchase candidate from the East Division of Down, are disturbing the cabinet officials considerably. The expediency of more severe measures, especially against the United Irish League, it is stated was discussed at today's meeting.

BY 'PHONE

This Trial in Kentucky Was Conducted and the Prisoner Was Found Guilty.

Mt. Vernon, Ky., Feb. 7.—It is believed that the first legal trial ever held over a telephone took place here Wednesday, when Judge Durham in this place was called over the telephone by Constable Jones, who had a prisoner at large charged with a breach of the peace. All parties, including the county attorney agreed to proceed with the trial though the court was seven miles from the prisoner. The telephone was used for 30 minutes. The defendant was found guilty and fined the costs, which he paid, and all seemed satisfied with the result.

ROARING WELL

CREATES CURIOSITY OF UTICA PEOPLE.

Six Year Old Well on Mrs. Bell's Farm Suddenly Begins to Make a Roar.

The people in Utica and vicinity are much interested in a "roaring well," two miles east of that town on the premises of Mrs. Belle Bell. Six years ago Mrs. Bell hired a well drilled 102 feet deep near her door and since that time the well has given satisfaction save that it was necessary to pump out some water in order to rid it of a reddish sand.

On the evening of Christmas day Ward Bell pumped some water, and at that time he heard a heavy rumbling sound, which he supposed was caused by a wagon on the frozen road nearby. As he heard a similar noise on the following day, and again on the next day thereafter, his curiosity was aroused.

In the pump platform there was a hole from which a stay bolt had been dropped. Ward found that a furious current of air was issuing from the opening.

For six weeks the phenomenon has been watched, and it still continues. At first the rumbling appeared to shake the earth, but at present it is not so severe. By listening closely, one can hear a boiling and bubbling of the water down 50 feet in the well.

The breathing from the opening is intermittent. It will continue, say from early in the forenoon, until some time late in the night, and then will draw in air for a few hours. The inspiration last only about half as long as the expiration. The beginning of the roaring is not always at the same hour of the day, neither does the condition of the weather or temperature appear to affect its force.

Arthur Bell, the younger son of the family, has amused himself by tying an ordinary glass bottle in a position with its mouth near the bolt hole, where it is "blown" by the escaping air.

"Do you think it would be advisable to give the Philippine commission authority to grant franchises?" asked Mr. Lodge.

"I certainly do," said the Governor. "To expect anybody of men to develop the islands without franchises properly restricted is quite unreasonable."

"In view of the fact that we are starting out afresh here," said Mr. Dubois, "would it not be advisable for the government to build, own and control all railroads, telegraphs and telephone lines?"

"It is a question of economics upon which I hardly care to express an opinion," was the answer. "The building of railways would greatly develop commerce and agriculture."

"Do you consider it important that we should buy the lands of the friars and open them up for settlement?" asked Mr. Lodge.

"Yes, sir, I do," was the reply. "There is not a more important recommendation made to Congress than that. It would tend to improvement and pacification of the islands."

The governor had no doubt that the lands could be bought at reasonable prices.

MR. GEACH'S DEATH.

The remains of William Geach, who died at Chicago Junction Wednesday, arrived in Newark on B. & O. No. 4 at 12:15 o'clock this afternoon, and were taken to Granville for burial. ADMIRAL SAMPSON'S CONDITION.

Arrest At Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 7.—N. G. Baumgardner was arrested today for alleged embezzlement in North Carolina, and grand larceny in Virginia. He created a sensation as owner of Lady Kent, a horse whose win at New Orleans Thursday was $20,000. Echoedale was favorite in the race and considered an easy winner over Lady Kent. Those not in on the game backed Echoedale heavily having to put up $9 to win $7, while Lady Kent was backed from $2 to $1 to even money.

PRESIDENT'S SON

Very Ill with Pneumonia—Mrs. Roosevelt Hastens to His Bedside at Groton, Mass.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., the President's eldest son, is seriously ill with pneumonia at the Groton School, Groton, Mass. This alarming intelligence reached the White House this morning by telegraph from the principal of the school where the youth is boarding. As soon as it came, Mrs. Roosevelt determined to hasten to his bedside. She will leave this afternoon and whatever the outcome of her son's illness, will probably remain at Groton for several days.

Mrs. Roosevelt will doubtless be prevented from accompanying the Presidential party to Charleston, S. C., as planned Monday evening.

Young Roosevelt's illness is the result of exposure during a bare headed expedition in a snow storm. He is reported to have led several days ago.

Owing to the illness of her son Mrs. Roosevelt has been obliged to recall her invitations for tea on Monday next, the 10th inst., from 4 to 6; and also to cancel all her engagements in Washington for the present.

HANGMAN

HAD TROUBLE IN OBTAINING ACCOMMODATIONS.

ROUGH SAVED RADCLIFFE VERY BLACK EYE.

"HERE GOES AN INNOCENT MAN"

The Last Words of Fred Schultz as He Mounted the Scaffold at Detroit This Morning.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 7.—Frederick Schultz was hanged at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., this morning for the murder of Mrs. Craig, his paramour, August 7 last year, after a violent quarrel in which Schultz seriously wounded Mrs. Craig's 13 year old daughter and instantly killed the woman with a revolver. Hangman Radcliffe officiated, and Schultz showed little concern as he mounted the scaffold. His last words were "Here goes an innocent man into eternity." Hangman Radcliffe found it difficult to obtain accommodations in this town, all the hotels and boarding houses refusing to entertain him. Roughs set upon him before the hanging and gave him a very black eye.

ARGUMENT

On Admiral Sampson's Behalf Filed With the President by Counsel This Morning.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Mr. Theall of Admiral Sampson's counsel, this morning filed with the President a long statement and argument on behalf of Admiral Sampson, as opposed to the contention of Admiral Schley's attorneys that Admiral Schley was in actual command in the battle of Santiago, and therefore entitled to the credit for the victory.

Washington, Feb. 8.—In the argument of Sampson's lawyers presented to President Roosevelt today, it was stated that it was Sampson's practice when he left the blockading line to proceed to a point where under regulations his immediate command ceased and then signal to the next in rank to take command. On the morning of July 30 this signal was not given. There is also evidence, the report said, that when the first shot was fired, officers of the Oregon in the center of the line could read the New York's battle signals then flying.

TRACTION SYSTEM.

Philadelphia, Feb. 7.—The reported purchase of the Big Consolidated of Cleveland from the Everet Moore syndicate by the Elkins syndicate is said to be only a part of the ocean to ocean trolley system to be controlled by Elkins and Widner. They now control the traction system in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and have their eyes on New York and Chicago systems.

MEETING PLACE CHANGED.

Columbus, O., Feb. 7.—J. P. Byers, General Secretary of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections, today announced that the place of the next meeting had been changed from Milwaukee to Detroit. The conference will meet May 28 to June 3. The reason for the change was the inability of the local committee at Milwaukee to make satisfactory arrangements.

PLUNGER

WITH MORE THAN $40,000 IN HIS POSSESSION

In the Hands of Gotham Police on the Charge of Forgery—Harry Lewis' Arrest.

New York, Feb. 7.—An important arrest was made here last night when Daniel alias "Red" Levy, alias "Harry" Lewis, was captured by the central office detectives. In Lewis' pockets was a roll of bills containing $41,000. Lewis was arrested on the charge of forgery, committed in Baltimore. He is a plunger who recently won $100,000 at the California race tracks and then after dropping $60,000 failed to pay several large checks.

Concerning the crime alleged to have been committed in Baltimore little is known to the police of this city. It is of greater interest to them that Levy, or Lewis, is the same turf plunger who recently won $100,000 on the race track at Oakland, Cal., and then after losing $60,000, failed to pay several large checks and markers. For his misconduct he was ruled off the California race tracks.

Detective Sergeants Hughes and Collins found him late last evening near the corner of Broadway and Cortland streets. When placed under arrest Levy at first denied his identity saying that he was Harry Lewis.

When questioned later he said that he was a bookmaker, and still later he admitted that he had been in California, and that he had left there owing large amounts. When he found that he was to be held in spite of his protests Levy confessed that he was the man wanted in Baltimore.

"That will all be fixed," said the prisoner to Sergeant Hughes. "I came back for the purpose of squaring up that Baltimore matter and I guess that it will be done all right."

When asked where he would get the money with which to square his accounts Levy laughed and said he had brought it with him. The detectives thought that he was bluffing until they reached police headquarters and then they learned that he had told less than the truth, for he had more than $40,000 in his possession.

FAMOUS

Artist and Member of Royal Academy, Thomas Sidney Cooper, Died in London Today.

London, Feb. 7.—Thomas Sidney Cooper the famous artist and member of the Royal Academy, died this morning at the age of 98.

Thomas Sidney Cooper was born at Canterbury, September 26, 1803. At the age of 17 he became painter at the Hastings theatre and for three years gained a moderate income by scene painting. He then became a drawing master at Canterbury. In 1827 he set out from Dover to Calais and literally sketched his way from the French port to the Belgian capital. At Brussels his talents secured him patrons and employment, and having married, he settled there. There his pencil was first directed to the study of landscape and animal painting, which branch of art secured him his high reputation. The revolution of 1830 involved him and his family in difficulties and he was forced to return to England. He first exhibited in the Suffolk street gallery in 1832. His picture attracted attention and he received a commission from Mr. Vernon for a picture now in the Vernon gallery. About ten years later his groups of cattle "Going to Pasture," "Watering at Evening," "Reposing," attracted general notice.

Dog Skipped Out.

This morning Dr. J. W. Alexander notified the police department that a strange dog was exhibiting every symptom of hydrophobia, biting and snapping at people in the vicinity of his office on West Church street, between Third and Fourth streets. Officers Zergiebel and Rinehart immediately repaired to the vicinity, but after a diligent search failed to find the mad canine which had suddenly disappeared. It is thought by some that the dog, perhaps, heard the Doctor at the telephone, and took the hint.

The photographic exhibition of Mr. T. M. Edmiston and Miss Emma Spencer, which has been on display at London, Eng., Philadelphia, New York and Columbus, during the past two months, is now arranged at the studio of Mr. Clarence White and Miss Spencer on North Third street, and will be open for visitors on Thursdays, afternoon and evening, and Saturdays, afternoon and evening, during this month. All who are interested in art and photography, are cordially invited to see the exhibit.

JOHN P. HOLLAND. INVENTOR OF THE SUBMARINE BOAT.

Mr. Holland is the genius who has realized Jules Verne's dream of the Nautilus. His submarine boats, which have recently stood such severe tests, have been adopted by the United States navy, while many foreign governments are following suit, notably Germany and Japan. It is quite possible that this inventor may live to see naval warfare revolutionized by the product of his brain.

THE SCHLEY CASE.
There is much guessing going on over the decision the President will make in the Schley controversy and up to date there are no real indications as to what the decision will be. Yesterday's Washington Post printed an article which was carried over the whole country by the Associated Press to the effect that it was said on good authority that the decision will be adverse to Admiral Schley and that the President would uphold the majority of the Court.

While the presses in the Washington Post office were turning out papers with the article referred to the machinery in the Pittsburgh Post building was at work on papers which said: "The report prevails in Washington that President Roosevelt on the Schley appeal will hold that the Admiral was in command at the battle of Santiago and will give him credit for the victory, at the same time criticising him for some of his acts prior to the battle, especially the retrograde movement and the failure to destroy the Colon. This is substantially the judgment of Admiral Dewey, and would satisfy the people. The great point to be officially determined is, who commanded, and to whom does the honor of victory belong? The rest is all leather or prunello."
There you are; you may take your choice. It is understood however, that the President's decision will not be announced until tomorrow, and most of us can wait until then.

MR. WUS TOASTS WOMAN.

Minister Wu Ting Fang, before an audience composed of men and women students of the Washington College of Law, was assigned to respond to the toast, "The American Women," which required his diplomatic tact. The minister admitted that his early impression of American women were formed on immature judgment, and of course prejudiced by the Chinese standard of the relations of the sexes. With experience in this country he finds women to be an important and intelligent factor in shaping the destinies of the Nation. Indeed, he went so far as to say they are superior, or at least equal to men, and ventured the suggestion that when women are on trial by jury for capital offenses their peers should be of the same sex. The reason for this suggestion, he said is that "persons generally have a leaning for the opposite sex." Mr. Wu then addressed himself to women in the professions, saying that medicine opens a field for sisterly ministrations, and that the law is eminently fitted for the gentler sex. But he warned his hearers that women who engage in these spheres of activity must studiously avoid the evil of becoming unsexed. "Retain your charms," said he, "retain your gentleness, and remember that, although you have a profession, you are still a woman."

JUSTICE SHIRAS TO RETIRE.

Justice Shiras, according to the Philadelphia Times, having reached his 70th year last month, has announced to his friends in Washington that he desires to retire from the supreme bench next October, when he will have completed ten years' service. The law provides that a justice of the supreme court who has reached 70 years of age or who has served ten years on the bench shall be permitted to retire. The succession is a matter of consideration, and it is said, ex-Atorney General Griggs, of New Jersey, and Justice J. Hay Brown, of Lancaster, and of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, are regarded as probabilities.

LOOKS BLUE FOR CUBA.

(Toledo Bee.)
That shining light in the councils of the Republican party, Congressman Charles Grosvenor, Monday delivered himself of an opinion on the duty of the United States to Cuba, and, as might be expected from such a political bigot, he cannot see farther than the line between the Republican party and its political opponents. This pants pocket patriot is opposed to reducing the duty on sugar imported to this country from Cuba. Not from any light that he has obtained as bearing on the commercial phase of the subject, not from any economic reasons. The general has loftier motives than that. He affects to believe that if the Republican party votes for reciprocity with Cuba, it will go to smash in the next Congressional elections. And he is more willing that the United States should become derelict in its obligations to Cuba than that the Republican party should risk the possibility of losing control of the legislative branch of the government.

There's high-minded statesmanship for you.

The general says he would willingly vote to give or to lend $15,000,000 to Cuba, but he will not hear of allowing her products a chance in the markets of this country. Possibly in this view of the matter, Grosvenor reflects the attitude of the sugar monopolists, who no doubt, would be quite agreeable to the people sharing the brunt of a money grant to Cuba as long as the monopolists are "protected" against the competition of Cuban sugar.

The sugar interests seem to have congress in their hands and the indications are that in spite of strenuous pressure from the White House, Cuba will get it in the region of her neck wear. It's about all she could expect from a party that seems to think more of its own selfish interests than it does of the nation's obligations.

SCHLEYS
Leave Knoxville For Washington—A Reception Tendered the Admiral Was the Closing Feature.

Knoxville, Feb. 7.—The visit of Admiral and Mrs. Schley to Knoxville ended auspiciously, and the visitors left for Washington. A reception tendered to the admiral by the Cumberland club was the closing feature. The entire clubhouse was decorated handsomely in the tricolor. The punch bowl was imbedded in the hold of a miniature of the Brooklyn made from choicest flowers.

Deadly Oil Fumes.

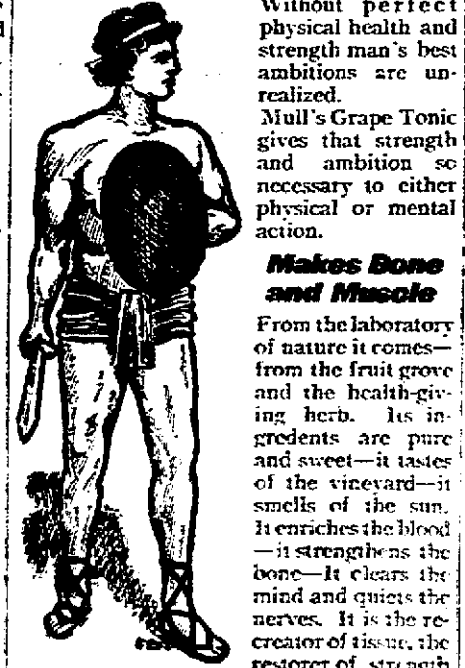

Galveston, Feb. 7.—One man met death and two more are in a critical condition as the result of an attempt to repair a feed pipe in a fuel oil storage tank in the Santa Fe railroad yards here. Owen Byrnes, 44, is dead, Pat Byrnes, his brother, is in a critical condition, and the recovery of John Day is doubtful. The men were asphyxiated by the fumes of the oil.

Postoffice Robbed.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 7.—Burglars broke into the postoffice at Meyers Fall, took all the money and stamps in sight and cut open many of the letters. The Spokane Falls and Northern station was also visited, the safe blown open by dynamite and several express packages taken from it. The full value of the stolen goods is not known.

OHIO LEGISLATURE
A Lawmaker Would Wipe Out Double Stock Liability—Wants It Referred to the People—Election of Senators by Direct Vote—Legislature Doings.

Columbus, Feb. 7.—In the senate, Senator Royer offered a joint resolution providing for the submission of a constitutional amendment to a vote of the people at the next general election, wiping out that provision imposing a double stock liability upon all Ohio corporations, and on account of which the larger concerns incorporate under the laws of New Jersey, West Virginia or Delaware, where the double stock liability does not apply.

Other bills were introduced in the senate as follows: Mr. Moore, repealing the law which requires foreign insurance companies to deposit $30,000 security. This is to accommodate the administration insurance laws, which have already been given. Mr. Chamberlain, extending the operation of the state parole laws to workhouses; Mr. Royer, to amend the laws as at present existing, so that companies owning or operating oil wells may be sued in the counties where the wells are located.

The following bills were passed by the senate: Mr. Wirt, amending section 5023 so that suit may be brought against a corporation in any county in which it owns or operates an oil or gas well; Mr. Wirt, amending section 5725a giving the husband or wife of an insane person, who may be confined in an asylum in some other state, the right to sell real estate free of dower; Mr. Herrick, amending section 2507 so as to authorize the joint connection of sewers in larger cities with those of adjoining municipalities; Mr. Longworth, supplemental to section 3821b so as to authorize corporations to increase their stock and put it upon the market without first offering the same to stockholders as now required, providing stock is not sold at less than par.

A number of bills were passed in the house as follows: Mr. Brannock, to give all streetcar, interurban and railway freight and passenger conductors state police powers while on actual duty; Mr. Hagenbuch, appropriating $195,000 to the State university; Mr. Tenney, providing that the two days' labor required on county roads can be performed at any time of the year; Mr. Moulton, to require county commissioners, township trustees and street commissioners to cut weeds on the public highways and on toll roads and railroads where the owners or operators neglect to do so; Mr. Meidel, to authorize Cleveland to issue $50,000 worth of bonds to erect and maintain free public bath houses.

Constitutional Amendments.

The question of constitutional amendment came up again. Representative Worthington having introduced a resolution to petition congress to submit the question of an amendment to the constitution to provide for election of United States senators by the people in direct vote. The Carle resolution, which was defeated in the house several days ago, called for a congressional convention to consider the matter. No action was taken on Worthington's resolution. A state constitutional amendment is also sought in a resolution by Mr. Guthrie, who wants to exempt from taxation all property belonging to church societies while such property is being used as the residence of a pastor. A bill to the same effect was killed several days ago. The resolution for an amendment to the state constitution to regulate the licensing of saloons and to incorporate a local option section in that instrument, offered by Mr. Williams several days ago, has been made a special order for next Tuesday.

MIKADO

Will Not Be Presented Until the Middle of April—Rehearsals are Postponed.

The time set for the production of the "Mikado" by the Newark Opera Company has been changed and the opera will not be put on until probably the middle of April. It was originally intended to give the opera immediately after Lent, for the benefit of the hospital, but since this organization has been abandoned it was decided to postpone the date of the opera. All called rehearsals may be considered off until further notice. The paper currency of Spain now stands at 42 per cent loss on the gold standard.

Neuralgia.
The Prayer of a Nerve for More Blood.

Neuralgia may attack any part of the body but most frequently occurs where the nerves are most abundant. In the head. In the face. Sometimes the heart nerves seem to twist. Twinging rheumatic pains of the extremities. Sharp and intense at times. In the intervals dull and heavy. Neuralgia is the result of impoverished blood, caused by impairment of the nerves—a lack of nerve force.

It is a disease of the nerve centers, and the pains accompanying it are a prayer for better nourishment. They are the danger signals which warn you against a total collapse of the nervous system.

Liniments and all external applications can only give temporary relief. Permanent cure cannot possibly come until the nerve centers are thoroughly revitalized by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. The beneficial effects of this great nerve restorer are felt thrilling through the nerve fibres as week by week and month by month the nerve force of the body is restored. W. MAIN STREET.

Mr. C. W. Manville, 257 W. Main street, says: "The la grippe left my kidneys in bad condition. They did not secrete properly. At the same time I suffered terribly with pains in my back over my kidneys. I just about gave up trying anything in the hope of getting better, when with the natural desire to get a well recommended medicine, I started using Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at Crayton's drug store. The results were decided and lasting."

ELM STREET.

Mr. C. L. Wines, 295 Elm street, says: "I had more or less trouble with my kidneys. I need not dwell on the symptoms. It is enough to say that I suffered, was nearly helpless and could get nothing to help until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store. I happened to read in one of the local papers something pertaining to them. I went there and obtained some. I was much surprised at the quickness of the relief they gave and I have told lots of other people about them."

GAY STREET.

Mrs. Robert Bates, who lives at No. 5 Gay street, says: "I had such pain, though my kidneys that it meant acute suffering for me to stoop and it was just as painful an act for me to lie after I had been sitting down. I wore porous plaster, but they afforded me little if any relief. I sent my little girl up to Crayton's drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills. They furnished the aid required and the backache was gradually but surely relieved."

Mr. C. B. Myers, 39 South Front street, freight conductor, B. & O., says: "I had a pain across the small of my back for four or five years. It was such a constant ache that I had little chance to forget it. I went to Crayton's drug store and got Doan's Kidney Pills. This was not the first medicine I had used in trying to get rid of my trouble, but I can say that it is the first that ever gave me quick and lasting relief for the backache entirely disappeared."

AMUSEMENTS.

The name of "Faust" conjures in the minds of theater goers the name of Porter J. White. He has given his own production of the play after his own manner. Last night when Porter J. White gave his semi-spectacular production there was very little standing room in the house. Many had doubtless seen the play, and Mr. White's Mephisto before, and knew what to expect. The play was beautifully and elaborately staged so far as scenery and electrical effects were concerned and was also well costumed. But the production did not depend entirely upon the beauty of the stage setting nor the brilliance of the electrical display, but the acting was excellent and much of it above the ordinary. The Mephisto of Mr. White was well conceived and in harmony with the production. The Marguerite of Miss Olga Verne was sweet, beautiful and strong. The delineation of Faust was also excellent. The audience always discriminating did not allow strong lines, finely spoken by Mr. White, to pass unnoticed. Another welcome feature which was properly appreciated was the song of the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana." It has never been sung so well with such a superb voice in a local theater before. It was a good deal of a surprise last night and altogether unexpected. Mr. White has made unparalleled strides toward the pinnacle of success and is today one of the most promising young stars upon the American stage. Grand Rapids (Mich.) Herald.

Leper's Petition.

Washington, Feb. 7.—A petition in the Kanaka language signed by 372 lepers belonging to the leper colony at Molokai, in the Hawaiian islands, has been presented to the Senate by Mr. Foraker. It is a protest against the bill to make the Molokai settlement a national leper colony under the control of the federal government. The lepers say they prefer to remain under the control of the territorial government. The petition was referred to Mr. Foraker's committee on Pacific islands and Porto Rico. There was some hesitation among the clerks of the Senate about handling the document until they were assured that leprosy could not be communicated except by close personal contact with one afflicted with the disease.

TAX INQUISITORS

IMPORTANT OPINION FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Regarding Their Tenure of Office and the Allowance of Their Fees.

Attorney General Sheets has rendered an opinion to the prosecutor of Tuscarawas county that will have general interest in many places in the state where tax inquisitors are employed. It was asked in construction of a contract that the commissioners of Tuscarawas county have with a tax inquisitor. There are a number of questions involved, but those that are of more than local interest are these:

The attorney general holds that a tax inquisitor may be discharged at any time notwithstanding the fact that the commissioners and treasurer and auditor may have assumed to employ him for a stated time; that these officers can not employ an inquisitor for a term extending beyond the term of office of any one of them, and that the inquisitor can not be allowed his share of the collections without the action of the board of commissioners.

This opinion is likely to stir up trouble for the inquisitors on all sides. It has been the practice to elect them for three years. Such contracts in the light of this opinion are illegal. They can be employed in no case beyond the time when the shortest termed member of the joint board goes out of office. It has been the practice of auditors to give the inquisitors vouchers for their share of the collections as soon as they are paid in. The commissioners have not been allowing the claims.

PENNY SAVINGS.

Inauguration of the Project in the Columbus Schools—Teachers Sell Stamps to Pupils.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

The first installment of stamps for the inauguration of the new penny savings system in the public schools has been sent to the teachers and the new financial system is now a reality in Columbus. Each teacher has received $5 worth of one cent stamps, and commencing Friday, each teacher will take a few minutes once a week to explain to the pupils the new system. Each teacher is given a little money bag in which she is to collect the children's pennies, and these bags are in turn given by the teachers to the principals, who put the money in a big bag and send it for deposit to the Columbus Savings and Trust company, or the Park Building, Loan and Savings company. When the sacks are returned to the schools they contain a new supply of stamps. Cards are given to each child depositor, and when the cards are filled the child takes the card to the bank, deposits it and gets a depositor's pass book.

The teachers have all been supplied with instructions, stamps, coin bags, etc., for the inauguration of the system. Some of them will commence it in the schools this week, the time being optional with the teachers. There will be a principals' meeting at 9:30 a. m. Saturday at which Superintendent Shawan will discuss the system. At that meeting also Miss Gordon will read a paper on "Savings."

THOMAS CASE

Some Surprises—Promised the Husband at Chicago—Building up a Defense.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

The divorce proceedings instituted by Harold Thomas against his wife, Ada J. Thomas, formerly Ada Blandy of Newark, continue to be an interesting subject here.

Since Monday considerable work has been done that would refute the charges brought against the woman. When the case starts in Chicago, it is said, one surprise after another is promised Mr. Thomas, who is believed to be unaware of some very interesting evidence gathered in Columbus.

Mr. Thomas is supposed to have some very influential and moneyed friends working in his behalf. Attorney's say, as considerable means would be required to gather all the alleged facts contained in his supplemental petition. Mr. Thomas confessed that he was unable to provide money for his wife's defense according to the local counsel and none was asked.

The Columbus witnesses referred to above will go to Chicago and give their depositions providing Mr. Thomas will contribute financially towards helping the defense in this direction.

Yesterday the Senior class of the university elected George Elwood Hartshorn one to represent the student body on that occasion, and he will respond to the toast "The Student Body." The selection is generally considered a good one, as Mr. Hartshorn has excellent ability as an after dinner speaker. The banquet this year promises to far eclipse any of those of the past, as it is not merely a "Washington" banquet, but is one given in honor of President Hunt, also.

MUNICIPAL CODE BILL

Simpler Than the Original Kibler-Pugh Measure is Introduced in the House at Columbus—Leading Features of the Proposed Law are Given.

In the House of Representatives at Columbus, Mr. Comings of Lorain has introduced the Edward Kibler-Judge Pugh municipal code bill as revised by the state bar association. The bill is not more than two-thirds the size of the first code bill.

The chief differences between this bill and the one before the legislature last year are municipal ownership and the non-partisan ballot in city elections.

Another important change is that but two classifications are made—cities and villages. All municipal corporations having, according to the last census, 5000 inhabitants are classed as cities and all below that standard in population are classed as villages.

Another feature of the new code bill is that it incorporates Mr. Comings' bill providing an entirely new code of laws for board of health. The health code is recommended by the state board of health.

A state merit system is provided. Under this section the code authorizes the appointment of a board of four persons, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party, and this board shall classify all offices and places of employment in each city except officers elected by the people, or who are elected or appointed by the council; judges and clerks of election, members of boards of education, the superintendent and teachers of the public schools, heads of the four principal departments of the city government, trustees of the sinking fund, tax and art commissioners, assistant directors of law and prosecuting attorneys of the police courts.

Neither politics nor religion can be considered in filling appointments under classified service. All examinations must be practical in their character. And no appointee or employee can be removed except for cause. The cause for removal in every case must be stated in writing by the officer making the same; must be filed with the commissioners, and be open to public inspection.

The bill rigorously keeps separate the legislative and executive functions of municipal officers. Hamlets are abolished because the state constitution makes no provision for them.

In cities the legislative power is to be vested in a council consisting of seven members, four to be elected by districts, one from each district, and three to be chosen at large, one of whom is to be elected as president of the council. All councilmen are to receive salaries and are to give bond. Each of said councilmen shall serve for a term of two years the district councilmen and the councilman at large being elected in alternate years.

The mayor is given the right of veto by any ordinance fixing the salary of or bond of any city officer, involving an expenditure of money, the approval of a contract for the payment of money, for the purchase, sale or lease of the transfer of property, creating a right of levying any tax, or imposing any fine, penalty, or forfeiture.

Section 1867 provides that street railroad, electric-lighting, gas, telephone and telegraph franchises shall not be granted for more than 21 years; provides for the city receiving a percent on gross earnings, or in lieu thereof that the property may revert to the city. This is an indirect provision for municipal ownership which Mr. Comings says will have to be stricken out.

Under the head of executive officers, the revised code provides that all municipal officers shall be chosen annually on the first Monday in April. All executive power in cities is to be vested in the mayor and in the heads of the several departments of accounts, law, public safety and public improvements. Each official is to give bond and take an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of his office. The most stringent provisions are made for the punishment of officials who receive any pay, reward or emolument other than the salary which is to be fixed by ordinance. No official shall attend or be a member of any political convention while holding office.

The council is authorized to establish any other office which in its opinion may be necessary or expedient for the government of the city. The mayor and heads of the several departments are entitled to seats in the council to take part in its proceedings and deliberations on all questions relating to their respective departments, without the right to vote. In case of misconduct in office, incompetency, gross neglect of duty, gross immorality, or habitual drunkenness of any mayor, the governor of the state may remove him from office. At least once each month the mayor is required to call together the heads of the departments for consultation upon affairs of the city.

The only elective officers are the mayor, treasurer, members and president of the council, police judge and clerk of police court.

Each city will have four executive departments to be known as: The department of accounts. The department of law. The department of public safety. The department of public improvements.

These heads of departments are to be appointed by the mayor and must give bond for faithful performance. Officers elected or appointed hold their office for two years.

On complaint filed with the probate judge of any malfeasance of any councilman or official, or of his participation in any contract in which the city is interested, such official may be tried, convicted and punished.

During the temporary absence of the mayor, or disability, the president of the council may perform his functions. The mayor shall perform all the duties prescribed by ordinance, and it is his special duty to see that all ordinances are faithfully executed. He must communicate to council a statement of the financial condition of the city, and on the first day of April of each year shall submit to council the annual budget of current expenses, any items of which may be reduced by council or omitted, but council shall not increase any item nor the total of the budget.

In cities where there is no police judge provided by council, the mayor must act as magistrate. The director of accounts is given charge of all the fiscal affairs of the city. The law department is given charge of all the legal business of the city. The director of safety is given charge of the employees and management of the health, fire, police, markets, work house and kindred divisions. The director of public works is given charge of streets, parks, sewers, engineering and water works. The city treasurer is required to make daily reports as to the condition of his accounts and a provision is made for placing public funds in banks.

Village government is to consist of mayor, clerk, marshal, treasurer and council, all elected by the people. Provision is made for a police and firemen's pension fund.

In granting franchises for street railroads, the directors of law and of public safety, the mayor, president of council, and one other member of the council chosen for that purpose, are constituted a commission to draft an ordinance containing conditions upon which it is proposed to make the grant. This draft then goes before the council for consideration. It is adopted, then advertising for bids in accordance with the terms of the ordinance begins. When the bids have been received and tabulated, then two questions are submitted to the voters, first as to whether the franchise shall be granted; and second, which bid shall be accepted.

Every city officer or employee except the mayor, directors, deputy directors, council, election judges and clerks, members of school boards and teaching force, tax and sinking fund commission, police judge and prosecutor and the treasurer are under the state civil service board.

Los Angeles claims to have a more complete street railroad system than any city of its size in the country.

The investigation of the fishes of the Nile organized by the Egyptian government and authorities at the Natural History Museum, South Kensington, has resulted in over 9,000 species being received at the museum.

DAIRYMEN

HOLD THREE DAYS SESSION AT COLUMBUS.

Licking County Represented but by Small Number—Points Brought Out in the Program.

Columbus, O., Feb. 7.—The Ohio

Dairymen met for a three days' session in Townsend Hall, Wednesday morning. After the opening exercises the meeting adjourned to the chapel to listen to a lecture by Mr. Ingalls of Big Four fame, on "Education."

Among other things he said: "It is not so much millionaires and men of fortune the world needs as men of true greatness of character and sterling worth. The ladder is never crowded at the top. At the bottom is where the struggle comes. Get above this and you may have plenty of room. Nothing will help a man to do this like education."

After listening to Mr. Ingalls very profitably for an hour we returned to the hall and took up the program of the day. This was "Milk Producers' Day." Some very good papers were read along this line, but the main point in most of them seemed to be toward an effort to produce better and more wholesome milk. It was shown conclusively that a great portion of the milk put upon the market is unfit for use. The Association feels that at the present time the great duty before them is to interest and educate the dairymen over the state. But this is a hard matter simply because the ones who especially need this education do not attend meetings of this kind. I think Licking county had but two representatives at Townsend hall yesterday, while there should have been 50 to say the least.

The feature of the day, however, came in the evening when the president, Mr. L. P. Bailey, delivered his address. His talk was somewhat of a resume of the work of the Association since its organization in 1893. He told of the progress of dairymen, and how this morning and not this afternoon made a big by reading an extract from 1900.

A letter written by George Washington to his man in charge, which ran like this: "We must look after the cows and give them better care and attention. For I see that with one hundred and one (101) cows on the plantation we are obliged to buy butter for the family."

Then Mr. Bailey took up the work of the legislative committee of which he is chairman. He told of what had been done and what they had tried to do, to suppress the sale of colored oleo. Mr. Blackburn, State Dairy and Food Commissioner, was present. He gave an outline of what he had been trying to do.

There is a bill to come up before the House this morning which on the face seems to be all right, but which will, it is feared, nullify the color law of the state if it should be enacted. The legislative committee was given power to take such action on the matter as seemed necessary. They were instructed to meet at 3:30 this morning. The point is here, the Association is willing that people shall eat oleo instead of butter if they so desire, but let it be put up in such shape that a wayfaring man though a fool may run and read.

RAILROADS.

Changes at Zanesville

James Shea, who has been stationed in this city for the past year, as local B. & O. yard master, has relinquished his position and on Monday next will return to Shawnee to take charge of the company's yards at that place. George McGuire, yardmaster at that place, will succeed Mr. Shea in this city. Mr. Shea is a railroader of experience, and proved ability and during his stay in this city earned the confidence and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. His genial personality earned him many friends in Zanesville who will regret his departure.—Zanesville Signal.

Strikers Lose.

Washington, Ind., Feb. 7.—The Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern shop employees, who have been out on a strike several weeks here, have declared the strike off, having already conceded every point and lost the contest. The men agree to return to work in a body or singly, as the company may desire.

A Popular Employee.

If a popularity vote were to be taken among the shop employees it is pretty safe bet that John Eberly would get more than an even share of the ballots. Mr. Eberly is the genial and capable foreman of the upholstery department whose courtesy and accommodating manners are proverbial among the shop employees. "Jack" is never too busy to do a shop employee a kind turn or favor. In days gone by it was customary for the odds and ends of old plush to be collected and burned. However, the scraps are now saved by Mr. Eberly and from time to time he transforms them into good serviceable gloves which are furnished the employees gratis.—Zanesville Signal.

On the return they will use the Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Chicago Rock Island & Pacific, Lake Shore and Pittsburg and Lake Erie roads to Pittsburg.

BEES IN HOUSE

Clements Paid $185 for His Thirty Pounds of Honey—Captured a Swarm of Bees.

Jas R. Clements captured a swarm of bees that lighted last summer on one of the shade trees in front of his house. He tried to hive them, but seemingly with poor success. So he dismissed the subject of bee keeping from his mind, says the Cincinnati Enquirer.

During the winter bees have continued to make their appearance in the Clements household. Every day or so a bee would crawl out of the opening made for one of the sliding doors between the sitting room and the parlor.

Lazily poisoning itself the bee would fly about the room until its career was cut short by a slap from the palm of Mr. Clements or somebody else in the room. But another bee would come forth to take the place of the slaughtered one.

It finally dawned upon Mr. Clements that he was keeping bees in his house. The discovery made no particular impression on him until the other day, when one of them stung him.

Hot water was thereupon procured, and the spot whence the bees issued was deluged with it, but hot water was a failure so far as concerns the extermination of the bees. So were the other devices for circumventing insect marauders in the homes of men.

While Mr. Clements was still hot upon the trail of the bees another member of the family came into contact with one of the small disturbers, and after a brief struggle, although the bee was destroyed, a couple of pieces of furniture were sacrificed and the happiness of the family was disturbed.

That night carpenters were sent for, and upon the day following there was a sound of loud hammering and ripping and tearing of wood. Mr. Clements, from another part of the house, directed the attack.

The workmen tore away a couple of partitions, and then discovered that a whole swarm of bees had taken up its abode there. Many had perished, but still there was a large active contingent, and they resisted the intrusion. But sweet were the fruits of victory.

"Honey, bushels of it!" shouted one of the carpenters, tearing into the room where Clements was sitting.

Further investigation, after the bees had been driven away, showed the presence of 30 pounds of delicious honey. It cost Mr. Clements $185 to put his house in repair.

ROWND ISLAND

WHICH IS SPELLED WITH A "W" AND NOT A "U".

Third Annual Banquet at Kuster's on Thursday Night—Jolly Affair.

Those Present.

The Rownd Island Club gave its third mid-winter "inning" Thursday night at Kuster's restaurant, and it is needless to say that all present enjoyed the evening to the utmost.

The members of the club and the invited guests began assembling from 7 o'clock and spent an hour in social intercourse, games and general good fellowship.

At 8:15 the banquet hall was thrown open, and all present were invited to be seated at the well filled tables, 71 availing themselves of the invitation.

The banquet itself was all that the most fastidious epicure could desire, gotten up in Kuster's best style, and served in a faultless manner by the several waiters under the supervision of Mrs. Ida Lawlor.

The menu included consommé, fish, roast turkey, scalloped oysters, marsh potatoes, lobster salad, cold ham, fresh cod fish, bread and butter, cheese crackers, cake, oranges, bananas, slaw, olives, celery, Consumers, claret and cigars.

After discussing the feast of good things Mr. W. D. Fulton called the club to order and made a short address in which he said that Mr. J. R. Fitzgibbon had been expected to act as toastmaster, but was unavoidably absent, and that Dr. A. T. Speer, the president, had been called away from the meeting, so that he had been asked to act as toastmaster in their stead.

Judge John David Jones was the first speaker and said that he enjoyed being at a place where the only thing he had to do was to eat. He thought that the outings at Rownd Island were a little too strenuous. He proposed the toast, "The Rownd Island Club, an organization which a physician never visits, professionally," which was enthusiastically drunk by all present.

Mr. Griff Rosebrough brought down the house by a comic song: "The German's Lamentations."

Father Lucius Kessler was next called on and recalled his first meeting with the members of the club, when he had been fishing on Buckeye Lake and was caught in a storm. He took refuge on Rownd Island and found that the club was enjoying an outing that day. He was made welcome, and has since enjoyed the meeting, and in the near future he expected to become a member.

Mr. Frank F. Fee said that at the first outing that he had attended, he had been feeling dyspeptic, but after he had partaken of the club's menu he felt much better and thought it had done him lasting good.

Drs. C. A. Hatch, D. M. Smith and J. P. H. Stedem were then called upon to respond to "The Rownd Island Banquet as a Cure for Dyspepsia" and they agreed that, if strictly followed, and conscientiously attended there was none better.

Gil C. Daugherty said that if he were ever approached by any one to sign a temperance pledge he would tell the person that he belonged to the best temperance society in existence, the Rownd Island Club.

Judge E. M. P. Brister drew some analogies between the fish that were angled for by the Rownd Islanders and the fish in the stream of life, mentioning three species, suckers, sharks and whales, the former two not being represented in the club.

Short talks were also made by Mr. L. A. Croy, of Toledo, general agent for the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, Daniel Altshool, C. L. H. Long, of the American Tribune, Joe Miller of the Advocate, John Moser, S. G. Hamilton, Julius Kremer, Mr. Ansel, W. H. Smith, W. C. Wells, and "Uncle Joe" Kuster.

The meeting then broke up, all expressing their enjoyment of the entire evening's entertainment.

The following sat down to the banquet: Dr. A. T. Speer, Judge John David Jones, Judge E. M. P. Brister, J. J. D. McNamara, W. D. Fulton, Dr. J. H. P. Stedem, Dr. E. V. Davis, J. Loewendick, S. G. Foss, Ambrose Schaller, W. G. Taafel, James Redman, W. H. Smith, Wm. H. Anderson, Jr. Arthur C. Hatch, Wm. Holler, George I. Miller, A. R. Pitzer, D. C. Winegar, John Moser, G. C. Daugherty, Captain S. G. Hamilton, Dr. J. N. Stone, Marion Swartz, Charles Holbert, F. F. Fee, Dr. G. H. Woods, J. W. Ansel, Dr. C. A. Hatch, A. B. Schan, Walter Charles W. Fuller, A. W. Pitts,

CONDEMNNS

New Osteopathic Cult Roundly for Many Reasons—Bill Before New York Legislature.

(New York Sun.)

There is a bill before the New York legislature intended to license so-called osteopaths to practice medicine, treat contagious diseases, sign death certificates, etc. Such a bill naturally breaks down all the barriers in process of erection for scores of years to safeguard the people against malpractice, to protect the sick from the sort of vampires bred in new countries where the laws regulating the practice of medicine are apt to be liberal, not to say loose. New York, after decades of hard work on the part of philanthropists, medical, legal and other, has secured a code of laws regulating the practice of medicine in the rigid and impartial manner which has been found to be the best by a slow process of evolution in older countries. The law simply requires in the applicant for a license to practice a certain standard of education in the different branches of science with which medicine and surgery are concerned, in order that the public may be protected from the kinds of malpractice who in the absence of such wise legal provisions would prey upon the sick.

This standard of education is within the reach of any one. No one is debarred from acquiring sufficient knowledge to pass the examinations. The "regular" physicians must pass them. The homeopaths pass them. The "eclectics" pass them. If the so-called osteopaths pass them, they also would be equally privileged to practice. But what they desire is the right to practice without passing any examination, without demonstrating, as all others of whatever school are required to do, their fitness to undertake the healing art. It would be just as fitting and proper that the practitioner of massage should have a law of this kind framed for him, for the masseur is usually extremely well versed in some of the principles underlying medicine. He is well acquainted with anatomy and physiology. The fact is that osteopathy is only a rudimentary form of massage. The word means bone-cure, and the osteopathist tells his patient that a small bone in the head or spine is out of place and he will pummel it into place at $100 a month. It is a passing fad. In 20 years from now it will be laughed at along with the imbecilities of the Perkins tractors. Let the osteopath practice along with the masseur and the midwife and the nurse, but do not throw open the doors to the practice of the entire healing art.

IN OLDEN TIMES.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-to-do people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine, made by the California Fig Syrup Company.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

To Keep Their Digestion Perfect Nothing is so Safe and Pleasant as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well take Stuart's Tablets after every meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

But it is not generally known that the Tablets are just as good and wholesome for little folks as for their elders.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive, should use the tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. H. Crottsley, 538 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother, a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie Co., N. Y., and made the following affidavit:—

Gentlemen:—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my two-months-old baby, which was sick and puny and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart Tablets and I procured a box from my druggist and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life.

MRS. W. T. DETHLOPE, Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of April, 1897.

HENRY KARIS, Notary Public in and for Erie Co., N. Y.

For babies, no matter how young or delicate, the tablets will accomplish wonders in increasing flesh, appetite and growth. Use only the large sweet tablets in every box. Full sized boxes are sold by all druggists for 50 cents, and no parent should neglect the use of this safe remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles if the child is ailing in any way regarding its food or assimilation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been known for years as the best preparation for all stomach troubles whether in adults or infants.

TRIBUTE

To the Late L. B. Wing by Editor Mack of Sandusky—Extract from the Sandusky Register.

In an extended eulogy of the late L. B. Wing, the Sandusky Register says in part:

"For over twenty years past he has been a trustee of the Ohio State university, serving continuously through changing state administrations and in the growth and development of that seat of learning from a little, feeble college of one building and a couple of hundred of students to a university of six colleges, with 1500 young men and young women—is wrought his crowning public service. His wise counsel, his high sense of right and honor, his broad charity, his comprehensive knowledge of affairs, his warm sympathy for those seeking education, his sturdy common sense and his supreme belief in the intellectual and moral development of American youth are indelibly stamped into the history of the state's greatest institution of learning, which, with the late Drs. Orton and Townsend, Trustee Thomas J. Godfrey, Dr. W. H. Scott and others, he served during years when his struggle was hardest. Nowhere outside the home circle he blessed and dignified will be more missed personally than in the board of trustees and faculty of the university. His broad intelligence, genial spirit and keen sense of humor made him a delightful friend and companion."

Next Y. M. C. A. Entertainment.

The fourth number on the Y. M. C. A. course will be Elias Day, Tuesday, February 18th, in Taylor Hall. The seats for this enjoyable entertainment will be put on sale at the Y. M. C. A. office tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

Mr. Day's entertainment is novel, new and original, consisting of an interesting talk on the Degeneracy of the Art of Story Telling, illustrated throughout with stories, humorous, pathetic and tragic; stories narrative, stories elocutionary and stories dramatic. In the latter class Mr. Day impersonates the characters in "make up" so cleverly that his audiences forget entirely the real Mr. Day in the character impersonated. No costumes are used but the seeming incongruity of dress suit and old farmer face is never noticed so interested does the audience become in the character itself.

All wishing to get good seats should be in line before nine o'clock tomorrow morning. The price of admission to all not holding course tickets will be fifty cents. This includes reservation of seat.

GAS WELLS

IN THE LICKING COUNTY FIELD ALL PRODUCERS.

Not a Dry Well in the Lot—25 Wells Are to be Put Down This Spring.

"Twenty-five new wells will be drilled in the new Licking county gas field," said one of the men who is closely identified with the development of this new territory, this morning. He also pointed out the fact that of the seventeen wells drilled in the "Homer field," as it is usually designated, not one has been a "dry hole."

Continuing along this line, this man ventured the prediction that this gas territory is good for the next 20 years, basing his guess on the wide distribution of the gas as shown by the location of the wells and the steady flow, the wells averaging about 2,000,000 feet, the largest well yet being a producer of three million feet each twenty-four hours.

The territory is in the vicinity of Highwater and Homer, in the northern part of this county. Nearly every farm in McKean and Burlington townships has been leased. Mr. E. H. Everett is said to have over 6000 acres leased and the Zanesville people have about that number of acres.

Mr. Everett has three producing wells and is now supplying his Newark glass factory from this territory. The Logan people have four wells, the Columbus men four, the Crawford & Treat company three, and the Zanesville men, headed by S. M. Winn, have three. The territory is about eight miles square.

The development of this new field is regarded as very fortunate as it is said that there are indications of a failure of the Logan territory. Rigs are now up for four wells and as soon as the weather will permit others will be started.

M. J. Flanagan, F. A. Bolton, T. J. English and others who a few days ago, secured a franchise for supplying the city of Mansfield with gas, expect to begin work of drilling within a few weeks.
